

AWARD-WINNING AND ACCREDITED HOME IMPROVEMENT SPECIALISTS

We were founded in 1982, and Droylsden Glass, a family-run business, has proudly provided homeowners across Greater Manchester with excellent home-improvement products and services. Thanks to our client's loyalty, we have grown an esteemed reputation for quality and value for money.

After winning many awards and accreditations, we could expand and invest in an extensive showroom in Audenshaw, highlighting our craftsmanship and quality products for customers to see. We have been able to give back to our community by employing a large staff base to support us on our journey to help homeowners. Droylsden Glass are firm believers in ethical business practice. As we have grown, our morals have remained the same. To support our staff in every area of our organisation and continue helping all our customers. We also believe in the greater good and give back to our local community by supporting local charities, schools, and community-based organisations we believe in.

BRAND NEW HOME IMPROVEMENTS PRODUCTS

Exciting news!

We have new home improvement products arriving at Droylsden Glass that we know you will love. We now have garden rooms, contemporary conservatories, pergolas, and Kubu smart home security systems to widen our portfolio of home improvement products from which we know you could benefit.

Kyube composite garden rooms are an ideal solution to increase living space without a time-consuming extension. Kyube garden rooms are a modular, bespoke garden rooms that can be used as a summer house, playroom, fitness room or a dedicated office space.

Contemporary conservatories blend spectacular aesthetics with the latest technologies, embracing conservatories with a modern design of the 21st century. Our new conservatory range features composite cladding, available in White, Anthracite Grey, and Black with a slim line roof, combined with your choice of windows, doors, and frames. This modern and contemporary design looks fantastic and allows natural light to flood your home all year round.

Louved Pergolas are designed to extend your outdoor season and are 100% waterproof, with innovative rotating roof slats that can be adjusted to flood the space with warming sunshine or provide cooling shelter. With its integral rainwater gutter, all blades disperse water to the perimeter guttering system and drain down the corner legs. Giving you a stunning all-weather pergola come rain or shine.

Kubu is an intelligent sensor that monitors your locks in real-time, notifying you if your windows and doors are locked or unlocked. From the Kubu App, you can check if your home is secure anywhere and anytime.

40 YEARS OF ACHIEVEMENTS

The Droylsden Glass team are accredited by various highly reputed regulating bodies that have covered the construction industry over the last 40 years. We have won numerous regional property and construction awards, allow us to fully explain each one in greater detail to fully understand the quality of our workmanship.

The Pride of Tameside Business Awards recognise and celebrate various regional sectors and individuals. Droylsden Glass caught the eye of the judges as one of the most inspirational companies in the district, allowing our commitment to high-quality home improvements to shine through.

CERTification and ASSESSment (CERTASS) is a Competent Person Scheme. Like the FENSA scheme, CERTASS accreditation provides peace of mind that our double-glazing installations adhere to the latest Building Regulations. A 'stamp of approval' that demonstrates premium quality, workmanship, and trust.

The Contractors Health and Safety Assessment Scheme (CHAS) aims to improve health and safety standards throughout the UK construction industry. As a CHAS accredited company, you have complete confidence that the entire Droylsden Glass team are fully compliant and up to date on all the latest health and safety standards.

To prove our dedication to high-quality home improvements, you can check out reviews on Trustpilot and checkatrade.com, combined with over 1,300 glowing recommendations from our much-loved customers.

To give you extra confidence in Droylsden Glass, we also offer Quality Assured National Warranties, which provide Insurance Backed Guarantees for home improvements and construction works. Use a company covered by QANW, so there's no need to worry, thanks to reliable and trustworthy deposit protection and insurance-backed guarantees via QANW membership.
